C. Notification: At least fourteen (14) days prior to a Nominating Convention the co-Chairs of the Local shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation or on the World Wide Web specifying the time, public place, and date for holding the County Nominating Convention.

X. NOMINATIONS FOR PUBLIC OFFICE

A. Regular State Biennial Pre-Primary

- i. Regular Biennial State Pre-Primary nominations shall be made during the Annual State Convention in election cycles when the State Party is qualified as a major party under New Mexico Statutes.
- ii. Regular Biennial State Pre-Primary nominations shall be made in even-numbered years.
- iii. Nominations of candidates for public office shall be made in accordance with the New Mexico Election Code and Primary Election Law. The New Mexico Election Code and Primary Election Law is hereby incorporated into this Section.

B. Minor Party Non-Primary

- i. In election cycles when Green Party of New Mexico is qualified as a minor party, nominations of candidates for public office shall be made using the following procedure and according to the provisions of the New Mexico Election Code. The New Mexico Election Code is hereby incorporated into this Section.
- ii. At least one week prior to the date fixed for the Annual State Convention, candidates for offices other than those wholly contained within the boundaries of a single county shall provide to the Secretary of the Convention a notice of intent to be a candidate, and an affidavit that the candidate is not seeking any other office in this election.

C. County and Municipal

- i. Nominations for public office wholly contained in a county shall be made at a County Nominating Convention.
- ii. At least one week prior to a County Nominating Convention, candidates for a public office wholly contained in that county shall submit to the Secretary of the Convention a statement of intent to be a candidate.
- iii. The Chairperson(s) and Secretary of the Convention shall certify to the County Clerk the names of Party nominees as per state statute. No candidate shall be certified to an office if "None of the Above" won the election.

XI. VOTING PROCEDURES

A. General Rule: All non-elective decisions by governing bodies shall be reached by consensus if possible. If consensus is not reached on an urgent matter, simple majority may be used except as otherwise noted in this document. For non-urgent matters, decisions may be tabled.

B. Officer and Nomination Elections Other than Federal Office when a Major Party: All elections for officers, including the election of officers of the Green Party of New Mexico and the election of officers of Locals, and candidates for public office shall, if there is more than one candidate, be Ranked Choice/Instant Runoff Vote pursuant to which each voter shall rank in order of preference as many of the candidates as the voter desires.

- i. Single Seat Contests: For single seat contests, the vote shall be counted as follows:
 - a) Each vote is assigned to the voter's first preference candidate, and the votes are tallied. If any candidate has a majority, the candidate is elected.
 - b) If no candidate has a majority, the candidate with the fewest votes is declared defeated. Each of that candidate's votes is assigned to the candidate who is each voter's next preference, if any, that has not been declared defeated. The votes are tallied again. If any candidate has a majority, the candidate is elected. Step (b) is repeated until one candidate has a majority or only one candidate remains.
 - c) Ties are resolved by declaring defeated the candidate having the lowest assigned random number.
- ii. Multi-Seat Contests: For multi-seat contests, the vote shall be counted as follows:
 - a) Each vote is assigned to the voter's first preference candidate and the votes are tallied.
 - b) Any candidate(s) who has as much or more than the number of votes equal to the total votes divided by one plus the number of seats, plus one vote, are declared elected. If all seats have not been filled, Section (c) is performed.
 - c) Each vote for each elected candidate elected in the last tally is multiplied by the ratio of candidate's number of votes in excess of the number needed to be elected divided by the number needed to be elected and assigned to the candidate that is each voter's next preference, if any, who has neither been declared defeated nor elected.
 - d) The votes are tallied again. If any additional candidate(s) have satisfied the criterion of section (b), they are declared elected. If candidates have not been elected to all seats, section (c) is repeated. If no additional candidate has satisfied the criterion of section (b), the candidate with the fewest votes is eliminated. Each of that candidate's votes (which may be non-integer) is assigned to the candidate who is each voter's next preference, if any, who has neither been declared defeated nor elected.
 - e) The votes are tallied again and section (b) is repeated.
 - f) Ties are resolved by declaring defeated the candidate having the lowest assigned random number.
- iii. "None of the Above" Voting Option:
 - a) Pre-Primary Ballot: For each office on the Pre-Primary Convention ballot, other than federal office, the ballot option "None of the Above" shall be placed after the last candidate's name. Notwithstanding the number of votes for "None of the Above," candidates who receive at least 20% of the pre-primary convention's vote shall be certified for the primary ballot as per state statute.
 - b) Non-Primary Ballot: For each office on the State and County Nominating Convention ballots, the ballot option "None of the Above" shall be placed after the last candidate's name. If "None of the Above" receives the greatest number of votes cast for an office, no candidate shall be certified for that office.
 - c) Primary Ballot: For each office on the Primary ballot, the option "None of the Above" shall be placed after the last candidate's name. If "None of the Above" receives the greatest number of votes cast for an office, no candidate shall be nominated for that office.

C. Pre-Primary Nomination for Federal Office: Elections for nomination to federal office when the Green Party is a major party shall be by plurality vote and, if no candidate has a majority, by a runoff election of the top two vote getters.

D. Voting Percentage Calculations: Abstentions shall not be included in calculating voting percentages.

XII. SUSPENSION OF RULES

Any procedural provisions of these Rules may be suspended by a two-thirds majority vote of Members present at a duly called meeting of of Green Council, a Local, or a Convention.

XIII. AMENDMENT

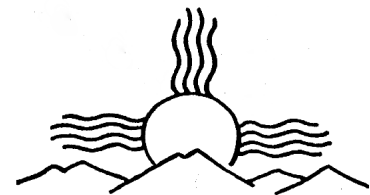

These Rules and Regulations may be amended by a majority vote of the representatives voting at any State Convention.
